Book Information Sheet

Indian Financial System, 1/e

D.K. Murthy & K R Venugopal

2006 | 152 pp | Paperback | ISBN: 9788188237883 | Price: 195.00

About the Book

Indian Financial System explains the changing dimensions of the country's financial set-up owing to the financial sector reforms. The book assesses the Indian financial system in the light of contemporary changes that have taken place in financial markets, mutual funds industry, insurance and banking sectors etc. The book provides a sound theoretical foundation, giving a clear conceptual understanding of the subject. It gives a complete picture of the structure, operations and functions of various components of the Indian financial system. Every chapter in the book begins with the objectives of learning and is followed by objective, analytical and essay-type questions. The book would be useful for graduate and postgraduate level students of commerce, management and economics

Salient Features

- The subject matter is spread in 5 chapters discussing financial system, commercial banks, financial institutions, regulatory institutions, and banking innovations.
- Provides a complete understanding of the structure, operations and functions of various components of the Indian financial system.
- Chapter outline is provided in each chapter along with end-of-the-chapter objective, analytical and essay-type questions

Table of Contents

- Financial System
- Commercial Banks
- Financial Institutions
- Regulatory Institutions
- Banking Innovations

About the Author

D.K. Murthy :- is Reader, Department of Commerce Bangalore University. His teaching experience at graduate and postgraduate levels spans three decades. He has also guided several M. Phil and Ph.D. Students and presented papers at national seminars.

K R Venugopal :- K.R. Venugopal is serving as the Principal and Dean of Engineering at University Visvesvaraya College of Engineering, Bangalore University, Bangalore. He obtained his Bachelor of Engineering from University Visvesvaraya College of Engineering. He received his Masters degree in Computer Science and Automation from Indian Institute of Science, Bangalore. He was awarded Ph.D. in Economics from Bangalore University and Ph.D. in Computer Science from Indian Institute of Technology, Madras. He has a distinguished academic career and has degrees in Electronics, Economics, Law, Business Finance, Public Relations, Communications, Industrial Relations, Computer Science and Journalism. He has authored 23 books on Computer Science and Economics, which include Petrodollar and the World Economy; C Aptitude; Mastering C; Microprocessor Programming; Mastering C++ and others. During his nearly three decades of service at UVCE he has over 175 research papers to his credit. His research interests include Computer Networks, Parallel and Distributed Systems, Digital Signal Processing and Data Mining.